2020 Design Awards

Jury

AIA
Delaware

Forrest Frazier, AIA, Jury Chairperson

Forrest Frazier studied Architectural History and Design at the University of Virginia before receiving his Masters in Architecture from the University of California at Berkeley, where he was the recipient of the Stephen Lenci Award and Chester Miller Traveling Fellowship. He has over fifteen years of broad professional experience at award winning design firms including Mark Cavagnero in San Francisco, Alterstudio in Austin, and Tod Williams Billie Tsien in New York. Prior to founding Architecture AF, Forrest worked on high-end residences in Manhattan and the Hamptons with the acclaimed boutique architecture / development firm founded by Cary Tamarkin. Forrest is the director of Architecture AF's Richmond office.

Daniel Backman, AIA, LEED AP

Daniel Backman is an Architect and Principal at TLCD Architecture in Santa Rosa, California. As TLCD's Higher Education Practice Leader, Daniel oversees the firm's diverse portfolio of college and university projects across the Bay Area and Northern California. He has a particular passion for the design of visual and performing arts spaces and extensive experience with the modernization and adaptive reuse of aging buildings. Daniel received his Bachelor of Arts in Architecture from the University of Pennsylvania and his Master of Architecture from the University of California, Berkeley.

Yuki Bowman, RA

Yuki brings a foundation in writing and handcraft to a practice of Architecture committed to conceptual clarity and spatial dynamism. She thrives on the complexity of the architectural process and enjoys working closely with consultant, contractor, and client to sustain design rigor through concept, detailing and construction. Yuki received her Master of Architecture from UC Berkeley, where she developed a passion for teaching architecture. Since then, she has served as adjunct faculty and a frequent guest reviewer, most recently at Portland State University.

Everald Colas, AIA

Everald Colas is an award-winning Haitian-American architect, educator, and storyteller with design experience in hospitality, aviation, multifamily, and institutional buildings. He has led a variety of internationally acclaimed projects during his time as a practitioner. Everald holds both a Master of Architecture degree and a Master of Science in Architectural Pedagogy degree from The University of Florida. He has been a guest critic at Columbia University, Pratt Institute, the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Florida, Marywood University, the University of South Florida and the University of Cincinnati. In 2018, he co-founded and organized the annual University of Florida School of Architecture COMING HOME Alumni Lecture Series.

Tim Derrington, AIA + LEED AP

Tim's youth was split between the realities of his conventional suburban upbringing and an education in the arts. These worlds were often difficult to reconcile, but finding connections between dissimilar cultures has instilled a romantic pragmatism in his work. Tim believes that inspiration and purpose are best delivered through thoughtful work and collaboration between all team members. This translates to studio and projects through an active concern for creating unexpected results from simple and engaging design decisions.

Burt Pinnock, FAIA

Burt Pinnock, FAIA is a principal and chairman of the board at Baskerville, a 123-year-old design firm. For Burt, architecture and design isn't a job; it's his personal contribution to the wellbeing and vitality of our communities. Over his 30-year career Burt's commitment and passion has created impactful work for neighborhoods, cultural institutions and forward-thinking companies, including the Black History Museum and Cultural Center of Virginia, Civil Rights Memorial Plaza at the Virginia Capitol, Colbrook Affordable Housing masterplan and more. A founder and board member of the nonprofit Storefront for Community Design, Burt currently serves as Chairman of the Commonwealth of Virginia's Art and Architectural Review Board and Vice-Chair of the Richmond 300 Advisory Council and is a board member of the Richmond Board of Zoning Appeals and Legal Aid Justice Center amongst numerous other board and committee engagements. Burt is a graduate of Virginia Tech and calls Richmond, Virginia home.
