PROFESSIONAL ALLIED MEMBER BENEFITS

Professional Allied Member

Individuals who do not hold a degree in architecture, but share an interest in the built environment as a professional colleague or enthusiast, are eligible for Allied Membership.

Allied Membership in AIA Delaware is designed to enhance and strengthen relationships among building industry professionals. Our Allied Members share in chapter resources, programs, and activities, encouraging relationships that go beyond sales and specifications.

Become a member of AIA Delaware and instantly expand your support network, a valuable professional resource to draw upon, and a powerful, collective voice to advocate for architects statewide.

About the American Institute of Architects

The American Institute of Architects (AIA) was created in 1857. Through education, government advocacy, community redevelopment, and public outreach activities, the AIA works toward a public environment that is responsive to the people it serves while representing the professional interests of America's architects. In close concert with other members of the design and construction team, the AIA also works to fulfill its commitment to help coordinate the building industry.

For more than 150 years, members of the American Institute of Architects have worked with each other and their communities to create valuable, healthy, secure, and sustainable buildings and cityscapes.
